Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art does not teach nor fairly disclose an information center as claimed in claims 1 and 5. U.S. Patent No 5,848,143 is typical of the prior art. With respect to the instant application, note Col. 14, lines 39 – 47. The prior art does not teach or fairly disclose a mainframe which continuously checks the ready status of at least one telecommunication terminal, including the data transfer path, detecting any faults and report the faults to the exchange and if one information desk is not reached via the mainframe, then the exchange performs call distribution and sets up a voice link to one of the telecommunications terminals.

With respect to the 112 rejection in the non-final rejection dated 04/21/2004, there are two specifications. One is dated 02/2002 and the other 06/2002. If the Pre-Amendment is applied to the Specification of 06/2002, then the Pre-Amendment appears to be correct. Applicant should confirm that this is correct.
